Ex. Min. (T. M.) Vol. IV.

Tuesday, June 12th, 1798.

A committee of a meeting of Militia Officers of the City Brigade consisting of Major General Thomas Proctor his aid du camp, Major Wm. Sergeant, Colonel Francis Gurney, Colonel Samuel McClain, and Captain John Woodside this day addressed the Governor on the subject of his circular letter, to the Officers of the several Brigades of Militia of this Commonwealth, in the words following to wit, vizt:—

“At a meeting of the General Division and the officers of Militia of the Philadelphia Brigade, at the State House in the City of Philadelphia, Monday, June 11th, 1798.

The circular Letter from the Governor to the Militia Officers of Pennsylvania was read.

Resolved—That the members of this meeting are highly sensible of the importance of the objects to which the Governor has called their attention, and are determined by their most zealous exertions to co-operate for the glorious purpose of preserving the independence honor and safety of their Country.

Resolved—That a Committee be appointed to prepare and report an answer to the Governors address, expressive of the determination contained in the preceeding Resolution, of the most cordial approbation of the Patriotic Sentiments with which the address is replete, and of the personal attachment and esteem with which his public services has inspired the members of this meeting."

A committee having been appointed retired, and in a little time returned, and presented the following address, which was adopted."

"To His Excellency Thomas Mifflin Governor of the State of Pennsylvania,

"Sir, We have perused with great satisfaction your circular address to the Officers of the Militia of Pennsylvania. The sentiments which it expresses are proofs of an enlightened Patriotism that cannot fail to increase the personal confidence and esteem which your public services have long merited and obtained from your fellow Citizens."

"Actuated by similar feelings we do not hesitate to assure you of our most zealous co-operation in every measure that can promote the honor and safety of our Country; nor can we doubt the success of the general exertion of the Citizens of the Union, when we reflect that a display of the same patriotic virtues which established our national Independence must be competent to protect our national rights."

"As it has been authoritatively announced, that our Government is compelled by France to relinquish the hope of peace, we shall, in our official and private characters, prepare, with alacrity for the painful alternative of war."

"The accomplishment of the objects of your address will, therefore, command our earnest and most vigilant attention; and we anxiously hope that the spirit and patriotism of the Great Body of the Militia of the Union (in addition to the other resources, which the wisdom of Congress may employ) will be found competent to repel every hostile attack upon our Country, and to perpetuate that great political blessing a Free Republican Government.

Signed by order and in behalf of the meeting

Thomas Proctor, Maj. Gen.

Division of the City and County of Philadelphia.

Attest

Wm. Sergeant, Secy. & A. D. C. to Gen. Proctor.

The Governor's reply to the foregoing address was in the words following, vizt:—

Gentlemen.

I perceive, in the answer, that you have given to my circular address, the strongest evidence of that public spirit, which has always been characteristic of the Freeman of Pennsylvania; and which, I am confident will be found, at this crisis, to pervade the whole body of the Militia.

And here, permit me, more particularly, gentlemen, to entreat, that you (and I earnestly hope that all our Fellow Citizens) will take advantage of the present momentous period, to disseminate in every class of the community, the principles of mutual deference and confidence; to revive the harmony of Society; and to perpetuate, upon the basis of our common interest, that unanimity, which is essential to render us happy at home, and respectable abroad.

It will be apparent, likewise, to the world, that whatever, diversity of opinion may, be produced upon political speculations by an exercise of equal rights, which, as citizens, we enjoy, there can never arise a difference, in design, or determination, when the object contemplated, is the protection of the liberties and rights of our Country.

Thomas Mifflin.

June 11th 1798.

A warrant on the State Treasurer for the sum of twelve hundred dollars in favor of John Jones, Inspector of the 1st Brigade of the 8th (late 9th) Division of Pennsylvania Militia to be by him applied in paying expenses incurred in marching a detachment of Militia from his Brigade to Marcus Hook was this day drawn and signed by the Governor for which sum Mr. Jones is to be accountable.

Hyneman, Adjutant General was this day authorized and instructed to organize the militia designated for the service of the United States, and that now are and that will be shortly at Marcus Hook so that there be formed (including Brigadier General Thomas Cadwallader's Brigade) four Brigades to compose two Divisions—Colonel Bache's Volunteer Infantry and Col. Their services in the capacity of Cavalry were not required, not wanted by the State.

Archibald S. Jordan Esq., Inspector of the 1st Brigade of the 5th Division of Militia was directed to notify the militia of his Brigade that its quota must be held in readiness to march at a moments warning for which orders may be expected to issue in a few days—And therefore it is incumbent on him to have the arms and other articles in his possession put into as good repairs and preparation as may be.

A letter was written by the Governor to Brigadier General Cadwallader disapproving of the measures taken by him to procure permission for his Brigade of Volunteers to be so stationed as to place that Brigade in a position rather to cover Baltimore than Philadelphia, and intimating the concurrence of General Gaines in this opinion and considering that these Volunteers were specially embodied for the defense of Philadelphia and also considering that all the force under the command of General Gaines is scarcely sufficient for that defense.
